THANK YOU VOLUNTEERS

The Board of Directors, officials and members of the business community gathered on April 26th at the K of C Hall in Salem to honor and thank the volunteers of the Greater Salem Caregivers for all their time and effort that they gave over the past year to assist and help their fellow citizens in Salem, Pelham, Plaistow and Atkinson with rides, errands and visits.

Over 75 volunteers gave 5549 hours of their time in 2006 helping our elderly and disabled neighbors stay in their homes and remain independent.

After Rev. David Yasenka of the Triumphant Cross Lutheran Church in Salem opened the luncheon with an invocation, Board President, Karen Yasenka thanked the volunteers on behalf of the Board for all their hard work and efforts.

Dr. Henry LaBranche, Salem's Town Manager thanked the volunteers on behalf of the Town for all the volunteers do to enhance the quality of life for many of its most neediest citizens. He also introduced Selectman Beth Roth who was in attendance.

Joining the Board to honor the volunteers was Ann Lally of the Salem Cooperative Bank, Susan Covey of Enterprise Bank, Connie Young of ServiceLink, Paula Faist of Silverthorne, Patti Drelick from the Senior Center, Paul Donovan, Chief of Police, and Bob Loranger, Salem's Welfare Administrator.

We were indebted to Jill O' Shaughnessy and Karen Fitzpatrick of Century 21-McLennan and Company Realty for the invitations, programs, decorations and centerpieces.

The volunteers were presented gifts of appreciation provided by the Salem Cooperative Bank, Enterprise Bank, Citizens Bank and Century 21-McLennan Realty

We are also grateful to the Knights of Columbus, Ken Akerley, George Camire for all their help and to Sebastian, who entertained the volunteers and guests with the lovely sounds of his accordion,

Lillian Proulx and Rita Gouveia
